

PETER DRUCKER CHALLENGE
www.druckerchallenge.org

Anna Zam (NZ)

Upon graduating, Anna became a junior barrister to 3 of New Zealand's leading QC's but decided cases, arbitrations and ministerial inquiries did not compare to the trials of validating a legaltech start-up to provide greater access to justice. Anna is passionate about social enterprise and has been invited to EU twice and most recently shoulder-tapped by the US Department of State for the ASEAN Summit. Shortly after, Anna joined a passion economy network-effect start-up. Anna is proud of her indigenous I-Kiribatian/Chinese heritage and is now working with other start-ups to increase diversity in the technology sector, while she figures out her next passion to pursue.