

João Paulo Brainer (BR)

João Brainer is a dedicated Neurosurgery Resident with a strong focus on patient-centered care. Internationally recognized for his innovative contributions, João is the founder of Vesalius, a startup pioneering mixed reality medical simulations. He is also passionate about publishing on healthcare policies and management, striving to impact the field beyond the operating room.