

Paul Redillas

Previously elected university council leader and member of 7 different student formations currently studying Industrial Engineering in the University of the Philippines Diliman with innate interests towards business and management.