

Cristiane Rodrigues Caixeta (BR)

Cristiane has a degree in law and currently works at a Judicial Center for Conflict Resolution and Citizenship, serving a population with legal doubts and holding conciliation hearings, as she is also a conciliator trained by the Court of Justice of Minas Gerais. In his free time he is responsible for managing an online store. In addition, he also carries out writing and creative work. One of his greatest passions is writing. Fun times are enjoyed with the family. He likes to travel, listen to music, read good books and watch good series and films. She is a defender of the rights of minorities, animals, the environment, women, the disabled, the elderly, LGBTQIAPN+ people, children and adolescents. We firmly believe that education can change the world. And he fights to make people aware of the importance of empathy, of putting oneself in someone else's shoes..