

Chidera Umelo (NG)

Chidera Umelo is a dedicated investment professional committed to fostering business-led development in emerging markets. She holds a bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Nigeria.

Chidera aspires to spearhead sustainable development across Africa and other developing regions by directing financial resources toward innovative startups, small to medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), and large domestic businesses. Her goal is to empower these entities to thrive and contribute to economic development.

Currently, Chidera serves as a Corporate Finance Analyst at Landmark Africa Group, an organization dedicated to supporting SME development across Africa through its Ecosystem. In this role, she collaborates with a dynamic team to drive impactful business solutions.

Chidera is enthusiastic about forming lasting connections with changemakers worldwide and enjoys spending time learning new things.